

Job Description: SPORTS PHOTOGRAPHY GAME-DAY INTERN

Do you have a photographer's eye and a passion for sports? The Des Moines Menace is searching for a talented photographer who can capture the action and the excitement of Menace Soccer.

This part-time summer internship contributes to the marketing and game-day operations of the Menace, Iowa's premier soccer team. Duties include:

- At Menace home games (men's and women's), taking photos of the action on and off the field. This includes action shots as well as photos of the fan experience.
- As available, taking photos at the organization's camps (for ages 3-14).
- Editing, organizing and archiving the electronic files in a timely fashion.
- Selecting and emailing photos within 60 minutes of each game's completion.

Qualifications

- Experience shooting sports action.
- Creativity and a knack for seeing things from different perspectives.
- Accessibility to digital camera with sports-action capabilities preferred.
- High levels of responsibility and organization, with an ability to consistently meet deadlines.
- A passion for sports and a working knowledge of the game of soccer.
- Open to receiving and heeding directions, suggestions and constructive criticism.
- Willing to work nights and weekends.
- Able to consistently report to the stadium at least an hour before the games begin. The season starts in early May and runs through July, possibly into August.
- Self-motivated with a positive attitude.
- Proven team player who is willing to do what it takes to get the job done.

As part of the same corporate family as Kum & Go convenience stores, all Menace associates are expected to uphold the company's values: Passion, Integrity, Teamwork, Caring and Excellence.

To Apply

Please email your resume to Adam.Small@MenaceSoccer.com and follow up with a phone call: (515) 457 6365. Instead of a cover letter, please email me three reasons you're interested in being part of the Menace. Deadline is March 15.
