

Job Description: BROADCASTING / PUBLIC-ADDRESS GAME-DAY INTERN

Do you have a passion for sports broadcasting and the ability to communicate in a way that gets others excited? The Des Moines Menace is searching for an enthusiastic public-address announcer who can professionally inform fans of the action on the field, while injecting life into the promotions, sponsor copy and other announcements.

This part-time summer internship contributes to the marketing and game-day operations of the Menace, Iowa's premier soccer team. Duties include:

- At Menace games, embracing the role of public-address announcer. This includes pregame announcements and starting-lineup introductions, in-game announcements, sponsor copy and other announcements, promotions, half-time entertainment and post-game script.
- As PA announcer, also playing the background music and contributing ideas for ways to improve the play lists (pre-game, half-time, post-game) and other elements of the fan experience.
- Helping coordinate the PA script book, writing and updating sponsorship and promotional content, as well as information that keeps fans up-to-date on the Menace's season and stats.
- Playing an active role on Menace game days, helping with stadium setup and teardown.
- As available, assisting with the Menace's youth tournaments in late April and early May.

Qualifications

- Experience with public speaking, preferably in sports announcing.
- A voice that resonates and clearly communicates a broad range of announcements.
- Comfortable operating sound equipment.
- High levels of responsibility and organization, with the ability to read from script and improvise.
- A passion for sports and a working knowledge of the game of soccer.
- Creativity and enthusiasm.
- Willing to work nights and weekends.
- Able to commit to working from sun-up to sun-down on all Menace home dates. The season starts in early May and runs through July, possibly into August.
- Open to constructive criticism and others' suggestions and ideas.
- Self-motivated with a positive attitude.
- Proven team player who is willing to do what it takes to get the job done.

As part of the same corporate family as Kum & Go convenience stores, all Menace associates are expected to uphold the company's values: Passion, Integrity, Teamwork, Caring and Excellence.
