

Winter Season 2010

NOW AT 2 LOCATIONS!

About the Program

The Junior Menace developmental program is for beginners and players ages 4 to 9 who have some knowledge of the game or none at all. The main goal of the program is to further educate each player and instill a greater love for the sport of soccer. Junior Menace participants will have fun while learning and strengthening their soccer skills. Winter training focuses on skill building and indoor games.

What do I Bring?

Each participant should bring their own water, soccer ball, shin-guards and non-marking tennis shoes or indoor shoes. No cleats are allowed on the indoor surface.
